Proposed Trip of [ ] and Morn to Venice

REFERENCE: EOLA-8023, 23 March 1954

1. COM approved the proposal contained in reference that [ ].
 [ ] and wife accept the suggestion of Morn for a short vacation trip to Venice.

2. Because of his present and anticipated position Morn is of obvious interest to KUBARK. During a trip such as the one proposed [ ] will have a further opportunity to develop and cement a relationship which may yield lasting benefits.

3. [ ] travel will be governed by the following financial provisions:

a. The use of [ ] personal vehicle is authorized and mileage will be paid in accordance with existing regulations. Expenses for emergency repairs clearly connected with the trip will also be reimbursed.

b. Regular per diem will be paid.

c. Reimbursement for operational entertainment will be in accordance with the applicable directives.

d. Unusually costly or ostentatious entertainment should be avoided.
 (We are not, of course, suggesting that [ ] would engage in any ostentatious entertainment. On the contrary, we have absolute confidence in [ ] judgment and appreciation of the disadvantages which may accrue to Morn as a result of unfavorable publicity.)

4. Completed Form 10 is attached.
